From the Editor.

When I took on the job as editor for the newsletter, I stated that I would EDIT the newsletter not go looking for material to print. I have endeavoured to find material from various sources. As of now I have absolutely nothing to print.

This is your newsletter and to make it work I, or any future editor must have copy to print. I have asked and asked for material, all to no avail.

Having said this, unless I receive copy, there will be no more newsletters. The choice is yours.

Tony.
